

Risk Assessment

The purpose of risk assessment is to help employers determine what measures should be taken to comply with legislative requirements. This risk assessment training will give delegates indispensable insight and guidance into the practical application of legal requirements in the workplace.

Who should attend this Risk Management course?

This risk assessment training is aimed at all who are required to conduct risk assessments as specifically required by the Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999.

What are the benefits of attending Risk Management?

By the end of the course, delegates will be able to:

- Identify hazards and consequently evaluate the risk from these hazards
- Understand the practical and theoretical aspect of risk assessment
- Carry out a risk assessment and understand the need to monitor and review risk assessments
- Complete a suitable and sufficient risk assessment

Key topics

- Legislative requirements
- The need to manage health and safety from the moral, legislative, and financial viewpoint
- Definitions of hazard, risk, control measure and reasonably practicable
- The principles, practice, and methodology of risk assessment
- The hierarchy of controls Course Duration

1 Day

Course Cost

£475 for up to 12 Delegates

For further information please email training@greenleavesrm.co.uk

Health Safety Environmental

TRAINING AND CONSULTANCY